

MiFID II product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and eligible counterparties target market – Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Securities, taking into account the five (5) categories referred to in item 19 of the Guidelines published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on 3 August 2023, has led to the conclusion that the target market for the Securities is eligible counterparties, professional clients and retail clients, each as defined in Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II). Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Securities (a Distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer's target market assessment; however, a Distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Securities (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

PRIPs Regulation – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS WITHOUT KID – The Securities are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (EEA) without an updated key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97, as amended, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as amended (the Prospectus Regulation).

UK MiFIR product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and eligible counterparties target market – Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Securities has led to the conclusion that the target market for the Securities is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook (COBS), and professional clients, as defined in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014, as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (EUWA) (UK MiFIR), and retail clients, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of EUWA. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Securities (a Distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer's target market assessment; however, a Distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Securities (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

UK PRIIPs Regulation – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS WITHOUT KID – The Securities are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (UK) without an updated key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (EUWA) (as amended, the UK PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Securities or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the UK Prospectus Regulation).

Prohibition of Offer to Private Clients in Switzerland without KID - The Securities are not intended to be offered or recommended to private clients within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Financial Services Act (the FinSA) in Switzerland without an updated key information document according to the FinSA or any equivalent document under the FinSA in relation to the Securities. For these purposes, a private client means a person who is not one (or more) of the following: (i) a professional client as defined in Article 4(3) FinSA (not having opted-in on the basis of Article 5 (5) FinSA) or Article 5 (1) FinSA; or (ii) an institutional client as defined in Article 4(4) FinSA; or (iii) a private client with an asset management agreement according to Article 58(2) FinSA.

The Securities do not constitute a participation in a collective investment scheme in the meaning of the Swiss Federal Act on Collective Investment Schemes (CISA). They are neither subject to authorisation nor supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA (FINMA), and investors in Securities will not benefit from protection under the CISA or supervision by any Swiss regulatory authority and are exposed to the risk of the Issuer and Guarantor (if applicable).

PART A - CONTRACTUAL TERMS

This document constitutes the Final Terms of the Securities described herein for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as amended (the Prospectus Regulation) and must be read in conjunction with the Base Prospectus dated 10 May 2024 and the supplements to the Base Prospectus dated 18 November 2024 and 14 January 2025 (the Supplements) which together constitute a base prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Regulation (the Base Prospectus) in order to obtain all the relevant information. A summary of the issue of the Securities is annexed to these Final Terms. The Base Prospectus and any Supplement are available for viewing on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange website (www.luxse.com) and during normal business hours at the registered office of Crédit Agricole CIB and on its website (<https://www.documentation.ca-cib.com/IssuanceProgram>).

The validity of the above-mentioned Base Prospectus dated 10 May 2024, under which the Securities described in these Final Terms are continuously offered, ends on 10 May 2025. From this point in time, these Final Terms are to be read together with the latest base prospectus of the Issuer for its Structured Debt Instruments Issuance Programme, including the information incorporated by reference in the latest base prospectus from the Base Prospectus dated 10 May 2024, under which these Securities were initially issued. The latest base prospectus of the Issuer for its Structured Debt Instruments Programme from time to time will be published on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's website (https://www.luxse.com) and be available for inspection during normal business hours at the registered office of Crédit Agricole CIB (<https://www.documentation.ca-cib.com/IssuanceProgram>) and the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent.

For the avoidance of doubt, if any application has been made by a potential investor and the Issuer exercises its right to cancel the offer, such potential investor shall not be entitled to receive any Security. The total amount of the securities offered to the public is up to EUR 5,000,000

Prospective investors may apply to subscribe for the Securities during the Offer Period.

The Offer Period may be shortened or extended at any time and for any reason. In such case, the Issuer shall give notice to the investors as soon as practicable before the end of the Offer Period by means of a notice published on its website (<http://www.documentation.ca-cib.com/IssuanceProgram>).

Applications for the Securities can be made during the Offer Period through the Distributor(s). The applications can be made in accordance with the Distributor(s) usual procedures. Prospective investors will not be required to enter into any contractual arrangements directly with the Issuer or the Dealer related to the subscription for the Securities.

A prospective investor should contact the Distributor(s) prior to the end of the Offer Period. A prospective investor will subscribe for the Securities in accordance with the arrangements agreed with the Distributor(s) relating to the subscription of securities generally. There are no pre-identified allotment criteria. The Distributor(s) will adopt allotment criteria that ensure equal treatment of prospective investors. All of the Securities requested through the Distributor(s) during the Offer Period will be as otherwise specified herein.

The Distributor(s), in agreement with the Issuer, reserves the right to accept any subscription requests for the Securities which would exceed the Aggregate Nominal Amount of up to Up to 5000 Certificates and the Issuer may increase the “up to” Aggregate Nominal Amount.

The Issuer shall publish a notice on its website (<http://www.documentation.ca-cib.com/IssuanceProgram>) in the event that the “up to” Aggregate Nominal Amount of up to Up to 5000 Certificates is exceeded and the “up to” Aggregate Nominal Amount is increased.

There is no maximum amount of application.

Minimum amount of application is 1 Certificate i.e. EUR 1,000

The Securities will be available on a delivery versus payment basis. The Securities offered to investors will be issued on the Issue Date against payment by the Distributor(s), via the Dealer, to the Issuer of the gross subscription moneys. Each such investor will be notified by the Distributor(s) of the settlement arrangements in respect of the Securities at the time of such investor's application.

Publication on the website of the Issuer <http://www.documentation.ca-cib.com/IssuanceProgram>) on or around the Issue Date.

C. Qualifications in the audit report

The audit reports do not contain any qualifications with respect to Crédit Agricole CIB's historical financial information.

D. Principal risk factors related to the guarantor

The following risks have been identified as being significant and specific to the Guarantor and of a nature, should they materialise, to have a significant negative impact on its business activity, its financial position and its access to various sources of financing:

- 1) Credit and counterparty risks, which include credit risks on its corporates and financial institutions counterparties, risk on any significant sector or individual concentration, counterparty risk on market transactions, credit risk related to securitization transactions as well as country and sovereign risks;
- 2) Financial risks, which include market risk, risk of change in the value of its securities portfolio, foreign exchange risk, liquidity risk, risk of change in the value of equity investments, and global interest rate risk;
- 3) Operational risks and associated risks, which include compliance and legal risks and other operational risks including information system security risks;
- 4) Business risks, which include systemic risk (negative impact of adverse economic and financial conditions, as well as changes in laws and regulations) or strategic risk;
- 5) Climate and environmental risks;
- 6) Risks relating to the structure of the Crédit Agricole Group.

3.4 What are the main risks specific to securities?

There are risk factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the risks related to the Securities, including the following:

- 1) The trading price of the Securities may fall in value as rapidly as it may rise and Securityholders may sustain a total loss of their investment;
- 2) The Securities may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be very liquid. Illiquidity may have an adverse effect on the market value of the Securities;
- 3) The implementation in France of the EU Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive could materially affect the rights of the Securityholders, the price or value of their investment in the Securities and or the ability of the Guarantor to satisfy its obligations under the Securities;
- 4) French insolvency law could have an adverse impact on Securityholders seeking repayment in the event that the Issuer, the Guarantor or its subsidiaries were to become insolvent and could have a material adverse effect on the market value of the Securities;
- 5) The risk relating to the unsecured nature of the Securities and the Guarantee, the absence of negative pledge and debt restrictions with respect to the Issuer and the Guarantor, all of which could have an adverse effect on the market value of the Securities;
- 6) Not Applicable
- 7) The Interest Amount, Automatic Early Redemption Amount and Final Redemption Amount of the Securities are dependent upon changes in the market value of the Underlying(s), which could adversely affect the market value of the Securities. In addition, the Early Redemption Amount and Final Redemption Amount may be less than the nominal amount of the Securities and the holders of Securities may lose all or part of the amount of the principal invested;
- 8) An investment in the Securities does not confer any legal or beneficial interest in the Underlying(s) or any voting rights, right to receive dividends or other rights that a holder of the Underlying(s) may have. Potential losses in value of the Securities cannot be compensated by other income; and
- 9) The Securities are not principal protected and investors are exposed to the performance of the Underlying(s); accordingly, they risk losing all or a part of their investment if the value of the Underlying(s) does not move in a positive direction.

4 KEY INFORMATION ON THE PUBLIC OFFER OF SECURITIES AND/OR ADMISSION TO TRADING ON A REGULATED MARKET

4.1 Under what conditions and according to what timetable can I invest in this security?

The Securities are offered for a maximum nominal amount of up to 5,000 EUR Certificates.

The Securities are expected to be admitted to trading on or as soon as practicable after the Issue Date, on EuroTLX, a Multilateral Trading Facility operated by Borsa Italiana S.p.A.

The Securities will be offered to eligible counterparties, professional client and/or retail Investors, during an open period from 6 May 2025 to 22 May 2025 (the Offer Period) in Italy, subject to (i) the Securities being admitted to trading, if applicable, and (ii) an early closure of the Offer Period in the Issuer's sole and absolute discretion depending on market conditions, as specified below.

Prospective investors may apply to subscribe for the Securities during the Offer Period. The Offer Period may be shortened or extended at any time and for any reason. In such case, the Issuer shall give notice to the investors as soon as practicable before the end of the Offer Period by means of a notice published on its website (<http://www.documentation.ca-cib.com/IssuanceProgram>).

Applications for the Securities can be made during the Offer Period through the Distributor (as defined below). The applications can be made in accordance with the Distributor's usual procedures. Prospective investors will not be required to enter into any contractual arrangements directly with the Issuer or the Dealer (as defined below) related to the subscription for the Securities.

A prospective investor will subscribe for the Securities in accordance with the arrangements agreed with the Distributor relating to the subscription of securities generally.

The Securities will be available on a delivery versus payment basis. The Securities offered to investors will be issued on the Issue Date against payment by the Distributor, via the Dealer, to the Issuer of the gross subscription moneys. Each such investor will be notified by the Distributor of the settlement arrangements in respect of the Securities at the time of such investor's application.

The Issuer estimates that the Securities will be delivered to the investor's respective book-entry securities account on or around the Issue Date. Applicants will be notified directly by the Distributor of the success of their application. Dealing in the Securities may commence on the Issue Date.
